BILL

To repeal the Broadcasting Act, 1999, so as to align the broadcasting system to the developmental goals of the Republic and to establish a Public Service Broadcasting Fund to fund public service broadcasting in the Republic; to abolish television license fees; to establish within the Corporation International Broadcasting Services and transfer Channel Africa to the International Broadcasting Services; clarify the role of the Corporation's International Broadcasting Services; revise the composition of the Board of the Corporation; to introduce a performance management system for the Board; to outline the mandate of Sentech as a common carrier; to clarify the powers of the Minister in respect of public service broadcasting; to provide Charters for the Corporation and Community Broadcasting Services; to create a competitive local content industry and for this purpose, establish the Local content Advisory Body; to amend the Income Tax Act, 1962, and the Electronic Communications Act, 2005; and to provide for matters connected therewith."

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:-

Preamble

NOTING that South Africa is a developmental state, with enormous challenges relating to unemployment and rural development and that public service broadcasting is not the sole responsibility of public broadcasting services;

ACKNOWLEDGING that the South Africa's 3 tier broadcasting system (public, community, and commercial), makes use of radio frequencies that are finite public resources;

REALISING that the broadcasting system is an important vehicle to foster development of the Republic and in the African continent,

ENCOURAGING the development of South African expression by providing a wide range of programming that refers to South African opinions, ideas, values and artistic creativity by displaying South African talent in radio and television programming and by making use of radio frequencies that are public property and that provide a public service necessary for the maintenance of national identity, universal access, equality, unity and diversity; and

RESOLVING to align the broadcasting system to:

- (a) the developmental goals of the Republic for the benefit of the citizens and create a strong and sustainable funding model concomitant with this developmental objective,
- (b) the democratic values of the Constitution and to enhance and protect the fundamental rights of citizens,

1. INCORPORATION AND PURPOSES

1.1. Incorporation of the Corporation.

The Corporation shall continue to exist as a body corporate by the name of the South African Broadcasting Corporation (SABC) whose purpose is to serve public interest.

1.2. Term of Charter.

This Charter shall come into effect upon the promulgation of the Public service Broadcasting Act and it shall remain valid for a period of 10 years or any lesser period determined by Parliament. This lesser period shall not be less than five years.

1.3. The Corporation's public nature and its objects.

- (1) The Corporation exists to serve the public interest. Its main object is to promote public mandate.
- (2) The Corporation may maintain, establish or acquire subsidiaries through which commercial activities may be undertaken to any extent permitted by this Charter and the Public Finance Management Act (PFMA) on the approval of the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Finance.
- (3) The Act empowers the Corporation to maintain, establish or acquire subsidiaries for purposes sufficiently connected with its pursuance of public service broadcasting as outlined in the Public Service Broadcasting Act.

1.4. How the Corporation promotes its Public Service Mandate:

- (1) The Corporation's mission is to inform, educate and entertain and be a leader in public service broadcasting.
- (2) It should strive to fulfil this mission by means of—
 - (a) television, radio and online services;
 - (b) similar or related services which make output generally available and which may be in forms or by means of technologies which either have not previously been used by the Corporation or which have yet to be developed.
- (2) The Corporation may also carry out other activities which directly or indirectly promote the Public mandate, but such activities should be peripheral, subordinate or ancillary to its main activities.

1.5. The independence of the Corporation

- (1) Under this Charter, the Corporation, in pursuit of its mandate and in the exercise of its powers, enjoys freedom to express and journalistic, creative and programming independence as enshrined in the Constitution.

2. CONSTITUTION.

2.1. Introduction.

- (1) Within the Corporation, there shall be a Board and an Executive management. These two interlinked bodies shall each play a very important, but yet complementary, roles within the Corporation.
- (2) The primary role of the Board is to set the overall strategic direction of the Corporation, including its priorities, and in exercising a general oversight of the work of the Executive management.

Department of Communications

- (3) The Executive Management has responsibility for delivering the Corporation services in accordance with the priorities set by the Board and for all aspects of operational management and efficient use of resources in accordance with the provisions of the PFMA and other relevant legislations.

2.2. Relationship between the Board and the Executive Management of the Corporation.

- (1) In performing its duties, Executive management shall take instructions from the Board.
- (2) The Board shall be the sovereign body within the Corporation, in the sense that wherever it has a function under this Charter or the Act, it may always fully exercise that function as it sees fit.
- (3) Where the Executive Management has operational responsibility for activities which are subject to a Board function of approval, supervision, review or enforcement, any decision of the Board in exercise of such a function shall be final within the Corporation, unless in areas where the activity in question may also be subject to regulation by external bodies, such as the Authority.

2.2. Guidance and best practice

- (1) The Board and the Executive management, in performing their respective functions, must have regard—
- (a) to general guidance concerning the management of the affairs of public bodies as they consider relevant and appropriate; and
 - (b) to generally accepted principles of good corporate governance, but only—
 - (i) where to do so would not be incompatible with sub-paragraph (a), and
 - (ii) to the extent that such principles may reasonably be regarded as applicable in relation to their respective functions and within the particular constitution of the Corporation as a chartered Corporation.

3. THE BOARD OF THE CORPORATION3.1. Legal nature of the Board

As a guardian of the public interest, the Board is a body which discharges a public mandate in accordance with the Public Service Broadcasting Act, this Charter and any other appropriate legislation, including the PFMA .

- (1) The Board shall comprise 12 members consisting of:
- (a) a Chairperson and a Deputy Chairperson, and;
 - (b) 10 other ordinary members appointed by the President on the advice of the National Assembly following a process outlined in section 19 of the Act.
- (2) Oath or Affirmation: - A member must, before performing his or her functions, take an oath or affirmation that he or she is committed to-
- (a) fairness, freedom of expression, openness and accountability;
 - (b) serving public interest; and;
 - (c) upholding and protecting the Charter and the other law of the Republic, including the Constitution.

Department of Communications

3.3. The Chairperson of the Board.

- (1) The Act mandates the President to appoint both the Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson of the Board.
- (2) It shall be the duties of the Chairperson as the figure-head of the Corporation to ensure that:
 - (a) that the Board performs its fiduciary duties as a cohesive unit;
 - (b) Strategic leadership to the Board and the Corporation;
 - (c) Effective functioning of the Board and its committees;
 - (d) Strategies are implemented and performance management systems with Executive management are in place; and;
 - (e) The Corporation account to the shareholder and the public at all time.

3.4. The Deputy Chairperson of the Board

- (1) The Deputy Chairperson must, when the chairperson is absent or unable to perform his or her duties, act in his or her stead and when so acting, exercise or perform any function of the chairperson.
- (2) Whenever the office of Chairperson is vacant, the Deputy-Chairperson shall be "Acting Chairperson" with all the powers of the Chairperson.
- (3) In case of 2, such period will not exceed 6 months.

3.5. Length of terms.

The members of the Board must hold office for such period as the President may determine which period must not exceed five years.

3.6. Termination of office.A: General Termination

- (1) A member of the Board (whether Chairperson, Deputy-Chairperson or ordinary member) shall cease to hold his/her office—
 - (a) on the expiration of the period for which he had most recently been appointed ;
 - (b) if he/she resigns by written notice to the President;
 - (c) if his/her appointment is terminated by the President;
 - (d) if—
 - (i) he/she becomes bankrupt,
 - (ii) his/she estate is sequestrated,
 - (iii) he/she grants a Board deed for his creditors, or
 - (iv) he/she makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;
 - (e) if he/she is, or may be, suffering from mental disorder; or
 - (f) if—
 - (i) he/she fails to attend meetings of the Board continuously for three months or longer without the consent of the Board, and
 - (ii) the Board recommends to the appointing authority that he/she be removed due to any of the reason stipulated in subsections (d) and (f) above or any other reasons may deem to affect the effective smooth functioning of the Board and the Corporation.

B: Termination by the Appointing Authority

(2) The Appointing Authority—

(a) may remove a member from office on account of misconduct or inability to perform his or her duties efficiently after due inquiry and upon recommendation by the Board; or

(b) must remove a member from office after a finding to that effect by a committee of the National Assembly and the adoption by the National Assembly of a resolution calling for that member's removal from office in terms of this section.

(3) A Board member may resign by three months' written notice addressed to the Appointing Authority via the Minister, provided that the Appointing Authority may on good cause shown allow a shorter period.

(a) The National Assembly may, after due inquiry and by the adoption of a resolution, recommend the removal of a member from office on account of any or all of the following:

(i) Misconduct;

(ii) inability to perform the duties of his or her office efficiently;

(iii) absence from three consecutive meetings of the Board without the permission of the Board, except on good cause shown;
